COLORADO BASKETBALL CHAMPS WILL PLAY HERE

Boulder Team and Utah Varsity to Clash in Series of Three Games March 13, 14 and 15, Unless Plans Fail.

Intermountain News

A FIER all the trouble encountered by Dr. Merrill and Coach Bennion of the university in their attempt to arrange a trip for the varsity basketball team into Cologado, it now looks as though there will be a chance for the University of Utah o set in on the champlonship. One of the hottest basketball schedules played or a long time is nearly over in Cologado are to the effect that the boulder quintette just about has things ewed up. In fact, there is now so little ope for any of the other teams that the short of a miracle would lose the hamplonship to Boulder.

When Boulder's manager saw what the rift of things would be and learned that sension's men would likely clean up the ther Utah teams, he immediately wrote lanager Cameron of Utah for terms for meeting of these two teams.

Cameron answered that if the varsity on the champlonship of Utah and it was found at the close of the season hat basketball had not lost money for se athletic council, that arrangements build be made for a meeting.

AMERICAN FORK, Feb. 24.—Funeral services for Mrs. Salena Chipman, wife of James Chipman, Sr., were held in the Second ward L. D. S. chapel here at 1 o'clock this afternoon. It was one of the largest funerals held in this city for many years, the house being packed to overflowing with friends and relatives of the deceased. The pulpit was beautifully draped for the occasion and the profuse floral tributes, which completely embanked the casket, bespoke the high esteem and love in which the departed woman had been held.

Bishop Joseph H. Storrs presided over the services and the Second ward choir furnished the music. A number of speakers culogized the lovable character of the deceased. A large cortege followed the remains to the City cametery.

JENSEN, Utah, Feb. 24.—The fifth box car bearing a portion of the skeleton of a big Utah litard started today for the Andrew Carnegle museum in Pittsburg. It is estimated that ten more carloads will be necessary before all the bones of the discount, which is being excavated on the banks of the Green river, are assembled on the Ohio.

It is not so much the size of the reptile that is requiring a train of cars to transport it as it is that the bones are quarried in blocks out of solid rock and the blocks cased for shipment. The skeleton measures eighty-four feet in length.

PROVO, Feb. 24.—This morning, in the Sourth district court, Judge A. B. Morgan dismissed the charge against C. D. Romero and discharged the defendant. This action was in support of a motion made some time ago by District Attorney J. H. McDonald, which the court took under advisement at the time.

Romero secured $390 from the Spring-ville Banking company by means of a forged draft on a Chicago bank in 1905 and left the state before he could be arrested. He later served a term in the Nebraska state prison for a similar offense and was brought to Provo at the expiration of the term. Romero's health has been greatly impaired by his confinement and the officers here are of the opinion that another term of imprisonment would be equivalent to execution. The banking company which was defrauded also expressed a disneilnation to prosecute. Judge Morgan has had several talks with Romero in which the man has expressed his determination to lead a different life.
